

Lebanese Cuisine and Culture from a Lebanese-American Perspective And……Let's learn some English too!

Lillian Habeich, a teacher who grew up in the US but has roots in Lebanon, will give a presentation on her background as a Lebanese-American. She will also talk about Lebanese customs, cuisine (both healthy and delicious!) and what it is like to live in a multicultural and multiracial country.

This workshop will be conducted in English, but Japanese translation will be available. It is a great opportunity to interact with a native speaker, so don't hesitate! Come join us 😊
